Course content

This busy half-day session (inclusive of lunch and afternoon tea) is new to the ChALC training programme.

We have commissioned Wellers Law Group to deliver this for us and we hope that it is something that will be of interest and will cover the following points:

- Legal entities/structures for trading permitted by the Localism Act (companies, co-operative societies) including relationships with principal authority's trading arm
- Relevant company law
- The processes required for setting up a legal entity
- Financial management and the relationship between company accounts, profits, losses
- and the Council's human resource management including staff who work for both council
- and company
- The risks involved and ways of mitigating the risks
- How to sell the idea to members and the community and avoid damage to other interests in the community
